

Ministerial School
Oak Park Street School
Location: Chicago, Illinois
Years Attended: 1903

Alfred began Mission Alliance Ministers' School in the Fall of 1903 and continued for two terms. He continued in the Free Church School on Oak Street for two terms.

Oak Street School
Chicago, Illinois

The Oak Street Free Church in Chicago is where the first Free Church Bible Course took place in 1897. This Bible Course was for ten weeks. The School was organized and incorporated in 1901. In 1902 a three year Bible Course began with 30 weeks each year.

Sources: Written Recollections of Alfred Stone and The Golden Jubilee of the Swedish Evangelical Free Church 1884 - 1934

“The amazing story of God's grace to Trinity begins way back in 1897. In that year, Rev. P.J. Elmquist and Rev. J.G. Princell organized a ten-week Bible course that met in the Oak Street Hall, at the Swedish Evangelical Free Church of Chicago. From these humble beginnings would eventually emerge the Trinity International University that we know today in 2010.”

Sources: Trinity Magazine, Fall 2010, “Great Is Thy Faithfulness” by Dr. John Woodbridge