•Spectators at Recreation Park Sunday afternoon, Aug. 2, experienced several anxious moments when Daniel Doughty, age 5, fell into the swimming pool channel and the suction of the water carried him through a 16-inch pipe for a distance of 75 feet. The boy was able to stand up after emerging from the pipe, which drains overflow water to an area near the railroad bridge. He suffered some cuts and was taken to Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released. Daniel is the son of Mrs. Glenn Doughty.
